We Need $7,000 Cash at Once

And we need it bad. No other reason on earth would cause us to sacrifice our goods at the very beginning of the Fall season when every other merchant in Johnson City is asking full price for their wares.

WE WILL TAKE YOU INTO OUR CONFIDENCE

Our Mr. Parsons is negotiating a business deal where $7,000 cash is absolutely necessary to carry it to a successful issue. Rather than borrow the money and pay interest we would sooner reduce prices on our entire stock and raise the money in that way. It's a question of where

THE HUB LOSES AND WHERE YOU GAIN

To make the raising of this large sum doubly assured, The Hub has placed this entire stock in the control of

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Hal H. Haynes offers to again serve the bar and people of the First Chamber Division of Tennessee, subject to the action of the republican party, if deemed to be entitled to a renomination and re-election, upon his record as Chancellor.

Th bookworm disease does not seem to be causing any one any serious trouble.

With all her saloons Bristol is still complaining of hard times. Perhaps if the business men who are complaining would try another brand the hallucination would be more pleasing.

Hon. A. A. Taylor's name is being used without authority in connection with the republican nomination for governor of Tennessee. "Little Alf" trotted that heat once and knows how much shorter the inside track is for the democrat.

It will not surprise many people if Maj. Divine should revive his political ambition when he becomes a private citizen next week and enter the race for Attorney-general. If he should do so S. E. N. Moore will not be a candidate in all probability.

Senator Sam R. Sells has at last yielded to the demands of his friends and has entered the race for congress. This decision has been made after serious consideration and it is safe to assume that he has not entered the race for his health or for pleasure, and that he has decided to go into the battle with the intrepid Colonel fully equipped with the munitions of political warfare. It is too early for an outsider to say what the outcome will be, but we shall be able to make some observations later that will show how the battle is raging.

We extend our sympathy to Mr. Cy H. Lyle, editor of the Johnson City Comet, in the death of his dear little girl, aged 3 years and 6 months, which occurred Oct. 30. The child had reached that interesting age when it was the light and joy of the household, and the pangs of grief must be keenly felt by the bereft parents. —MorristownGazette

THE SALVATION ARMY OPENING

In connection with the official opening of the Salvation Army work at Johnson City, Major Wm. Andrews and Captain T. A. Peast will be here this month.

Major Andrews will lecture in two prominent churches, morning and evening, and in the afternoon he will give an address at the Soldiers Home. This service will be presided over by Governor Smith.

Major Guy Smith is taking active interest in the Army proceedings here and is desirous of making things go.

This coming week-end Captain T. Peast will bring a detachment of soldiers from Bristol and Saturday night will be the first initiation service. The meetings are to be held near the depot.

Captain T. A. Peast was in town making arrangements for a suitable building to be used as a meeting house and officers' quarters.

The work of the Army is well known. This includes the rescue of fallen girls, "relief," street evangelization, visiting the sick, sheltering the homeless, feeding the hungry, etc. And the building of a local corps here promises to be a blessing to Johnson City.

ENDOWMENT IS $101,000

Jonesboro, Tenn., Nov. 9.—The semi-annual meeting of the board of trustees of Washington and Tusculum college was held here Monday.

Dr. Charles O. Gray reported that the endowment fund of $100,000 had been completed, $1,000 more than that amount. This fund was completed as the result of the latest donation of Mrs. Nettie McCormick, widow of the reaper king, who sent her check from Chicago last week for $20,000.

President Gray reported that the new chapel at the Washington college branch had been completed at a cost of about $5,000. Upon request of President Gray, the installation of an electric plant for the Tusculum branch of the college was ordered.

Dean Fishburn, of the Washington College branch, requested the board to make provisions for installing a water plant at that branch of the institution, stating that it was very badly needed. The matter was referred to the executive committee with power to act.

The sympathies of his brethren of the press go out to Editor Cy H. Lyle in the loss by death of his little daughter. —Journal and Tribune.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

The Minister's Association of this city has decided on holding a Union Thanksgiving service this year, and the affair will be held at Munsey Memorial Church. A special musical program will be arranged and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Dayton A. Dobbs, of the Watauga Avenue Presbyterian church.

DAMAGED STOCK SOLD.

The Staples & Dyer stock was sold to the fire insurance companies who sustained loss, caused from the fire in the room above for eighty-five per cent of the invoice. After the transfer was made, the companies sold the stock to Messrs. Armistead & Hannah, of Greenville, Tenn., for sixty-five per cent.

Nurse Says:

"I know what is good for young and old people," writes Mrs. Clara Dykstra, a trained nurse of South Bellingham, Wash., "and will say that I consider Cardui the best medicine for girls and women. It makes them feel like new persons, relieves their pain and regulates womanly troubles. Both my daughter and I received great benefit."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

As a medicine for female trouble, no medicine you can get has the old established reputation, that Cardui has.

Fifty (50) years of success prove that it has stood the greatest of all tests—the test of TIME.

As a tonic for weak women, Cardui is the best, because it is a woman's tonic. Pure, gentle, safe, reliable. Try Cardui.

H. C. AUSTIN DEAD.

H. C. Austin, aged 60 years, died Sunday morning at 6 o'clock at his home at Dante. The deceased leaves a widow and the following children: Richard, Fred and Charles, all at home except Charles, who is in Cincinnati. Four daughters also survive him, being Misses Nannie, Jennie and Elizabeth, at home, and Mrs. Maud Truslow, of Redland, Cal. The funeral services were conducted Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Dante M. E. church, south, of which the deceased was a member. The services were conducted by Rev. W. R. Barnett, of the city, and Rev. W. W. Pyott, pastor of the church. The remains were laid to rest in Glenwood cemetery. —Knoxville Sentinel.

JOHNSON CITY MAY GET SMALL LOCAL INDUSTRY.

A. S. Roberts, secretary and treasurer of the Knoxville Carving & Moulding Company, states that he is contemplating removing his plant to Johnson City, although, he said, nothing definite along this line had been decided upon. A committee from the Johnson City Commercial Club, he said, would shortly visit the plant to confer with him, and it may extend to him and his business associates business encouragement that may move the plant to that place. The Knoxville Commercial organizations, Mr. Roberts said, have not given him the encouragement which he had hoped for and this, he said, is one of the reasons of the proposed removal of the plant from Knoxville to Johnson City. —Sentinel.

ARN ANPUTATED.

Mrs. Will Leach, the woman who had her hand mashed by machinery in the Johnson City Steam Laundry some weeks past, has had to undergo an operation for the amputation of same just above the wrist. The accident was thought to be only slight, but complications set in and amputation became necessary. She will sue the company for damages.

If your boy needs a New Suit take him to Pedigo Co's.

TO MEMPHIS.

Several gentlemen in the party will be accompanied by their wives. A special train will leave Knoxville, known as the Scottish Rite Special, and will be composed of Pullmans alone and contain more than 100 candidates for the degrees.

CAME FROM CANADA

TO BE MARRIED.

Yesterday afternoon P. Q. Miller, Esq., united in marriage Mr. Erlon S. Washburn and Mrs. Laura Wagner, of Toronto, Canada. Mr. Washburn came here several weeks ago to look after a lumber deal and was expecting to return at once to Canada to become a benedict, but when he found that it would be necessary for him to remain here several months he asked the bride-to-be to come to Johnson City and she consented. Upon her arrival, the wedding was celebrated.
